Mr. E. K. Nelson and son Edwin of Tampa are in the city, arriving in their car this morning.

Mr. R. F. Connor, who has been attending the university normal, will return to Ocala Friday and will open his summer school next Monday.

Messrs. Billingsley & Son have sold a seven-passenger, six-cylinder Chandler car to Mr. C. D. Shultz of Inverness.

Jack Galloway, one of the soldier boys of Company A, is home on a brief furlough. Jack is a living evidence that the boys are well taken care of in camp.

Mr. A. J. Brigrance, former marshal of Ocala, now a really, truly and successful farmer of Flemington, was in town today. Mr. Brigrance says farming in Marion pays if you work.

Tobacco is a necessity of life to the soldier. Realizing this, Mr. L. R. Trammell, secretary of the board of trade, is trying to raise a little fund, to keep the boys of Company A supplied with the weed that adds to a happy life and makes an unhappy one endurable. He has secured a number of subscribers to the fund and is looking for more.

Mr. Louis J. Dankwertz, the enterprising merchant, manufacturer and farmer, living on the Pedro road a dozen miles south of town, was in the city today, and informed the Star that he was expecting a visit from his sister, Miss Cordela Dankwertz, of Scranton, Pa., who will arrive in a day or two. Mr. Dankwertz has bought the lumber of the old mill at Levon, and will move it to his place, where he will put up a big shed, with a huge hayloft above and machinery to grind corn and velvet beans below. There is always something doing around Dankwertz.

A meeting of the voters of the Ocala precinct will be held Friday night at 7:30 o'clock in the rooms of the Commercial Club, for the purpose of discussing the proposed bond issue for good roads and selecting delegates to the convention to be held in the court house Monday, August 7, at 10 o'clock.

Every time you see a neat, trim, cool little lady prancing along with one of those transparent waists, which are cut forward and back nearly to the belt, don't you give your four-ply high linen collar a tug on its three-ply neckband and think what poor, simple idiotic slaves to style we darn food men are?—Exchange.

Mr. R. E. Layton of the Ocala Chero-Cola company, who has been in bad health for some time, left today for Panama Springs, in West Florida, near Carabelle, where he will remain for several weeks to receive the benefit of the waters which are highly recommended for stomach troubles.

Mr. C. N. Kirkland is as plucky as they make them. Notwithstanding his injuries of yesterday morning, severe enough to put some men in bed for a week, he was out again yesterday afternoon, somewhat bandaged up, but as chipper as ever.

Mrs. Ola Potter and children returned today from a two-weeks' vacation spent at Wallace, Ala.

We have a new perfume, Bouquet Dozira, a fine lactic extract, $2 per ounce. Gerig's. tf

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Rules and Regulations Governing Ocala's Free Library

The rules committee of the public library have adopted the following rules to govern the institution as soon as it is formally opened. The various committees are hard at work every day getting everything in readiness to open up. The task of indexing by title and cross indexing by subjects is a hard one, and those in charge of the work deserve much credit for their untiring efforts in getting the library in shape for use. The opening date will be announced as soon as the work is complete, which the committees hope will be in the next few days.

Borrowers: Adults of the city of Ocala are entitled to draw books by filling out application blanks. Children under 18 must obtain signature of parent or guardian.

Temporary Residents: A temporary resident may obtain a borrower's card by filling out application blank, making a temporary deposit to the value of the book and paying two cents a day.

Borrower's Card: Each person entitled to draw books from the library will be given a card, which must be presented whenever a book is taken, returned or renewed. If this card is lost a new one will be given after due notice upon the payment of five cents.

Number of Volumes: Two books may be drawn at a time, one only of which is fiction. Not more than two volumes of new fiction and two volumes of new juvenilia to one family.

Time Kept: Books may be kept two weeks and once renewed for the same time. Books marked seven day books may be kept for that time only and cannot be renewed. Books cannot be transferred.

Over Due Books: The fine of two cents a day will be imposed for books kept overtime.

Penalties: Borrowers will have to pay for lost or injured books. All borrowers who fail to pay for loss or damage to books, or their fines, will be debarred from the use of the library.

Hours: Library will be open from 8 to 10 a. m.; 4 to 6 p. m. and 7 to 9 p. m. on week days only.

CLEAR SKIN COMES FROM WITHIN

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."
